Biocentrism: How Life and Consciousness Are the Keys to ...

Biocentrism is the first scientific model to consider consciousness as the source of life and not the reverse. In other words, the world is perfect for us not by some random spin of the universal roulette wheel, but because it was created by our collective awareness in the first place. Consciousness came first.

Biocentrism / Robert Lanza's Theory of Everything

Biocentrism stresses the pivotal importance of life and consciousness, suggesting that it is improbable that over 200 exact physical parameters necessary for life could occur within the laws of physics, unless it was central to the long sought Theory of Everything. Similar views have been expressed in the Anthropic Principle.

Biocentrism is a new "Theory of Everything" proposed by American scientist Robert Lanza, which sees biology as the central driving science in the universe, and an understanding of the other sciences as reliant on a deeper understanding of biology. Lanza believes that life and biology are central to being, reality, and the cosmos.

Robert Lanza - BIOCENTRISM

Robert Lanza articulated this first principle in his book Biocentrism: How Life and Consciousness Are the Keys to Understanding the Nature of the Universe. Biocentrism is a new theory of everything and is based on the idea that the universe arises from life and not the other way around.

Biocentrism: There's no time and no death

Biocentrism (theory of everything) from Greek: βίος, bios, "life"; and κέντρον, kentron, "center" — also known as the biocentric universe — is a theory proposed in 2007 by American scientist Robert Lanza, which sees biology as the central driving science in the universe, and an understanding of the other sciences as reliant on a deeper understanding of biology.

The great question of life, the one we have been trying to answer for years: What happens when we die? Even modern science seeks to answer this question. Where does human consciousness come from and what is its origin? Is it simply a product of the brain, or is the brain itself a receptor of consciousness? If consciousness is not a product of the brain, it means that our physical bodies are ...
