The Idle Traveller: The Art of Slow Travel. by. Dan Kieran. 3.69 · Rating details · 651 ratings · 71 reviews. As we jet off on holiday, passing from airport lounge to hotel in our desperation to escape our everyday lives and find some better weather, we'd do well to ask ourselves what on earth we're doing.

The Idle Traveller: The Art of Slow Travel by Dan Kieran

The Idle Traveller is a charming, beautifully-written, episodic account of the author's slow journeying, which sees him lost in France, hiking about Scottish mountains, out-of-his-depth in Hungarian baths and crossing the breadth of the UK in a vintage milk float. Kieran's philosophy of slow travel stems from the days when he lived in London.
