The Spirit of God will teach and lead us into all truth (John 14:26; 16:13). Ultimately God must give the rev-elation of who Jesus Christ really is (Matthew 16:15-17). The Oneness of God is based on several years of study and research as well as experience in teaching systematic theology and church history at Jackson

The Oneness of God

The Old Testament emphasizes God's oneness (e.g. Isaiah 43-45 and Deuteronomy 6:4-9). Then the New Testament testifies to this one God's threeness (the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God). Both ideas are true and essential, but a problem arises when they are reduced to a mechanistic formula.

Life in the Trinity: God's threeness and oneness

The Oneness doctrine differs from Sabellianism in that Oneness Pentecostals conceive of the "trimanifestation" of God as simultaneous instead of successive, as is the case with classical Modalism. They contend that, based on Colossians 2:9, the concept of God's personhood is reserved for the immanent and incarnate presence of Jesus only.
